

PhD-application guideline: Curriculum vitae

Personal data

Full name (indicate male/female)
Current address
Phone and email
Date and place of birth
Citizenship

Language skills

Summarize your language skills. List your mother tongue and for each additional language indicate your level of understanding/speaking/reading/writing as fluent, fair or basic

Education

Date and place of high school diploma
Date of enrolment in your university education and the name of the university
Date and university for your BSc degree
Date (or expected date) and university of your MSc degree
Name of your MSc-thesis advisor.

Job experience

List your job experience (teaching assistant, industrial internships, etc.)

List of publications

List your publications and your submitted publications under three headings:
Peer review journal papers
Peer review conference papers/abstracts
Other publications.

Other

Feel free to add additional information in your CV that you find relevant for your application.